“ Grandma, I miss the old days with you and pawdy. I remember the yellow house in portage, that was fun times.
I don't remember a whole lot due to my own illness, but I remember a lady that loved everybody and that's you grandma.
Watch over us until we meet again.
I love you.

Your granddaughter
Christine

“ You became my stepmom when I was a teenager but I always called you Mom and knew that you loved me unconditionally. You never wanted me to call you mother because you never wanted to replace my mother so I called you Mom with all the love and respect that title called for. Love and miss you. I know you are reunited with dad (Pawdy) and now you can both look over all of us. Just give us a sign every once in a while to let us know we are making you(both) proud.
